Dear Mr. Hoover:

On November 29, 1956, you wrote a very cordial letter to a young Deputy District Attorney named Robert L. Anderson in Alameda County, California, in response to a letter he had written to you commending Bureau agents for work they had done on a bank robbery case which had been tried by him in the State Court.

I doubt that you are aware that your correspondent was my son-in-law, but he is, and he is very appreciative of the kind of letter you wrote him, and so am I.

Sincerely yours,

Warren Olney III
